

The Pollen Song

A filk to the tune of "Summertime"

by Rohais de Ravenscroft (mka Kimberly Tuttle)

1. Summertime, and my breathin' ain't easy.
Trees are bloomin', and the pollen is high.
Oh, my eyeballs itch, and my nose won't stop runnin'.
It's allergy season, and I wanna cry.
2. Benadryl won't do nothin' to help me,
And Claritin won't clear up my pain.
Zyrtec and Allegra might as well be placebos.
There ain't much I can do, but pray for rain.
